Sinking of the Steamer Hall.— The steamer Hall, which was sunk on the Mississippi river, near Memphis, a short-time since, was owned by par-ties in Pittsburgh. She had an insu-rance of $12 000 in that city, the smount being equally divided between the Eu-reka, Boatmen's and Cash Companies.

A COAL DIGGER INJURED.—A coal digger named John Dick was injured in a coal pit near Noblestown, Pa., on the line of the between the Kailroad, day before yesterday, by a lot of slate falling upon him while at work. His injuries are of such a character that his recovery is considered extremely doubtful.

large number of our citizens. The City Council held a meeting in the morning, and passed resolutions expressive of their deep regret at the death of the Editors Intelligencer:

Will you be so kind as to inform us through the columns of your worthy paper, whether or not, persons desiring to bathe can not do so directly after sunset, instead of waiting an hour after that period, as if very inconvenient to wait so long; or as to inform us if there is not some limits within the city (as in Centre Wheeling, below the Belmont Mill, would be a suitable place.) An early communication on the subject would be most desirable and you would greatly oblige.

—We have stated several times, that would be most desirable and you would greatly oblige A Swimmer.

—We have stated several times, that the time allowed for going in the water inside of the limits of the city was from one hour siter smost until sunrise in the morning. This includes both the Ohio river and Wheeling creek. Outside of the corporation, this law has no effect, as it is an act of the municipal authorities.

AN ATTEMPTED ELOPERENT.—Yesterday morning Joseph Mooney, living in East Wheeling, after committing adulters with his wife's sister, attempted to leave the city, taking his new love along with him. They got as far as Bellair, when he took a notion to return and secure his clothing. Returning to the house during his wife's absence he not only packed up his own clothing, but put in most of his wife's gyrtheria. He then went to the wharf and got aboard the steamer Lealle Combs, intending to go to Bellair and join the choice of his heart. In the meantime his lawful wife "smelt a monse," and had a warrant issued for his arrest. The papers were placed in the hands of the Sheriff, who anosceeded in arresting the brute just as the boat was heaving the wharf. The gentleman was brought before Justics of the Peace Johnson, who sent him to jail for a further hearing.

Mooney came to this city, a couple of years since as astronges from the valley of Virginia. He is by trade a carpenter. Since his sojourn here he has succeeded in winning the reputation of here, the comments cass in the city." At last accounts the woman at Bellaire was "waiting and weeping for her lover, but he cometh not."

RIVER NEWS.—The river was falling slowly last evening, with about seven and a half feet water in the channel.

The Express is, ine Parkersbutg packet for to-day at 10 o'clock. She will take passedy ers for Cincinnasi.

The Ed'nburg left last evening for Cincinnasi, with a very good trip.

B'siness at the landing is getting more brisk, and it is beped the lively old times will soon be revived.

PITTSBUEG.

We take the following from the Gasette of yesterday:

The river rose a few inches during Monday evening and night, but it fell sgain yesterday and was still falling slowly last evening, with scant three and a half feet in the channel by the marks. A very heavy freshet occurred in Beaver river on Sunday, and continued until Monday, the water, it is said, reaching the highest point known for years. The rise emanated mainly in Mahoning Creek, and so far as known, the damage resulting therefrom was not very sarious. not very serious.

The Cheinnait Times gets on the lowing:

Hoodish.—The inspectors up the strams of Arkansas compel the stramboats to undergo alterations unless they are, in their judgment, properly beilt for those waters; and we are told of cases, such as letting down the hog chains, to, that have thought to have caused considerable damage to the boats, and often their loss. We are, personally, not in the mess; but if it is so, somebody should see to it. Forty-seven boats have been sunk in those waters during a short time back.

Base Ball.—A game of base ball was played by the Starr base ball club of this city last evening on Weeling Island. The followis the number of tallies made by each person during the

The above figures show well for the skill of the "Star boys." We hope to bear from them again.

GRAND FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRA-TION.—The Sabbath Schools of the Zane street M. E. church, North street M. E. church and the Fourth Presbyterian church have agreed to unite and have a grand consolidated Fourth of July celebration at Cresap's grove. This will be the "biggest thing" of the sea-son.

Police Court.—There were three cases before this court yesterday morning, but the court adjourned until this morning without disposing of the cases brought before it.
